NEEDS PROGRAM FOR YOUNG FOLKS

Church Should Study Them and Meet Their Demands, G. L. Cook
Asserts at Closing Session.

COUNTY CONFERENCE ENDS

Says Young People Dance and Play
Cards Because They Follow
Lines of Least Resistance.

It is high time that the church was studying life and outlining a program for boys and girls, young people and men and women. This is the task of the church right now, according to G. L. Cook of Indianapolis who made the chief address at the closing meeting of the county conference of Christian churches at the Main Street church Thursday night. The next meeting will be held here.

The meeting was perhaps the best in the history of county meetings. The interest was exceptionally good and the attendance large. Mr. Cook classed it as one of the best if not the best county conference which has been held this year, and there have been four each week since the first of January. Mr. Cook is superintendent of the Sunday school work in the state.

"The reports have been so complete, the churches so well represented and so many have been interested that the conference is really worth while," he declared.

He said that in the past the work of the church had been altogether with the adults. This is emphasized by the church architecture, he continued, because the idea has prevailed that all that was needed was a room a platform and some pews. Some changes are being undergone, he said, until the semi-modern period has been reached where the average church now adds a room for the Sunday school.

"We know boys and girls learn very little through their sense of hearing, yet we insist on preaching to them and teaching them, often times, unattractive Sunday school lessons of the ungraded sort," he continued. "The young person learns through the sense of seeing and doing things for themselves.

"The prevailing type in the church is the revival. It is regarded as a cure-all for a run-down church. Later day activities have brought in special workers among the Sunday school children and often the evangelist makes a direct appeal to them.

"But reverting to church architecture, if the church had the child in mind when constructing the building, why should not the pews be graded? Did you ever see a church with pews for children down in front?"

He paused a moment to let that thought sink in. Of course, no one had ever seen a church so constructed. Mr. Cook that described the discomfort of small children sitting in big pews. If they sit far out so that legs will swing down, they can't lean back. If they lean back, their legs are sticking straight out. He wanted to know how many adults would care to sit through a service either way. He said the pews were for standard sized adults and if there were ever any under-size, they generally grouped themselves about some place where there

COURT ALL BUT DESERTED TODAY

Judge Sparks Spends Time Studying Arguments in Public Service Commission Case

NEW TRIAL IS DENIED LYNAM

Circuit court was all but deserted today as no cases were tried. Judge Sparks spent the day in study on argument submitted this week on the demurrer in the suit involving the city and the Public Service Commission. A decision is not expected soon as a large number of citations were given the court.

Judge Sparks has overruled a motion for a new trial in the case of the Greenfield Building and Loan association against Jerry Lynam, et al. The case is on a note and for the foreclosure of a mortgage. The suit was sent here from Hancock county and was tried last term of court.

Judge Gause of Newcastle was here a short time yesterday afternoon to enter some minutes in the case of Brickert against Owen L. Carr and the Rushville Milling company. Several motions were filed, but the issues have not been completed.

SPRING TAXES ARE BEING PAID NOW

Total of $2,500 is Collected Thursday and Rush Will Continue Until March 1.

UNTIL ASSESSORS GO TO WORK

The payment of the spring installment of taxes has started at the county treasurer's office. A total of $2,500 was collected yesterday. This rush is expected to continue until March 1 when the township assessors began work.

Most of the money paid in yesterday came from large taxpayers, with plenty of ready money in the banks. By paying their taxes these people avoid having to pay taxes on the money that would otherwise be assessed if it were to remain in the banks. This custom of lowering the amount of cash in the banks is followed every year by the large taxpayers.

It is also stated that between now and the first of March stocks and bonds, which are non-taxable will be sold rather freely to those persons desiring to avoid paying taxes on their money.

Miss Mary Ellen Carroll is able to be out after being ill for several days with throat trouble.

DEMOCRAT IS OUT FOR WATSON

George W. Caldwell, Former Mayor of Columbus, Says he Will Support Rushville Candidate.

AFTER SPEECH AT COLUMBUS

Candidacy Gains Considerable Momentum Following Campaign
—There Crowds Cheers Him.

Coincident with the one-day campaign of James E. Watson in Bartholomew county comes announcement in the Columbus Republican that George W. Caldwell, who served the city of Columbus as mayor and who has been a life-long Democratic worker, is out for Watson for the Republican nomination for United States senator.

Watson was given a rousing reception at the meeting in Columbus Wednesday night, according to the account in the Columbus Republican. The story says that the City Hall was jammed with people who cheered Mr. Watson to the echo and that "Mr. Watson's campaign gained considerable momentum during his short visit here (Columbus) can not be successfully disputed."

The most remarkable thing about Watson's campaign in Columbus was the announcement in last night's Columbus Republican that the former Democratic mayor of Columbus was for Watson. The Republican says:

To friends this morning in Columbus, Mr. Caldwell made this absolute statement with the addition that he did not care who knew it. "I am for Watson and am working for him now," was the statement attributed to him.

While Mr. Watson was in his room at the Hotel St. Denis, Wednesday, Mr. Caldwell was a caller there and the two politicians went over the political situation in a thorough manner. Later in the day Mr. Caldwell had dinner with Mr. Watson at the hotel and when the campaigner spoke in the city hall Wednesday night, Mr. Caldwell was one of his most interested listeners.

This morning some of Mr. Watson's friends asked Mr. Caldwell if he cared whether they used the fact that he is for the Rushville man for senator. He is said to have made the reply quoted above.

While Mr. Caldwell has not authorized any interview or any statement relative to his political convictions, it is known that he has not been in sympathy with the Democratic party on the protective tariff question for some time. He is a business man who does things in a hurry and much of his correspondence is conducted by telegraph or long distance telephone. As a result of using each of these means of conveying messages he has come in contact with the Democratic revenue tax and he has paid out more for revenue stamps than any amount of protective tariff would have cost him.

The Watson men here were much elated today over Mr. Caldwell's position. They pointed to the commanding position he long has held here in Democratic political circles and to the deference that always has been shown by local Democrats to his political views. They were free to assert that Mr. Caldwell's action would mean the gain of many other Democratic votes for the Watson cause.

Mrs. William Cline of Lewisville underwent an operation this morning at the Sexton Sanatorium.

RUSHVILLE IS ALSO EXAMPLE

Lafayette, Huntington And Richmond Not Only Cities Dissatisfied With State Commission

RATE INCREASE IGNORED

Petition of City Administration For Right to Charge More For Water, Fled 2 Years Ago.

Dissatisfaction with the public service commission is becoming general all over the state as is indicated by reports from Lafayette, Richmond, Huntington and other cities. Rushville is included in this list and dissatisfaction here dates back almost two years.

This dissatisfaction feeling comes particularly from the city administration and thus involves the entire city. It has been close on to two years since a petition was filed with the commission asking for the right to increase water rates from $1.50 a thousand cubic feet to $1.85 per thousand cubic feet. The petition was filed early in 1914, or shortly after the present city administration came into power.

A hearing was had by the commission on the question of an increase, but as yet no ruling has been handed down despite the fact that the city has complied with certain requests of the commission. Meters were installed throughout the city and the revenue from water was cut almost in two, because it is being charged for under the old rates. The new rate would give the city a slightly increased revenue. There is no kick here against the proposed increase and none appeared before the commission opposing the increase as petitioned by the city.

The action of the commission in certain cases recently decided, namely the Geist-Murdock deal in which permission was given to bond the properties up to 100 per cent, and converting $5,400,000 of stocks, almost all of which had drawn no dividends or only an average of 1 per cent a year into six per cent state authorized gold bonds, tended more than ever to convince local people the commission was losing sight of the real purpose for which it was created.

The city officials have declared several times that they could not expect anything from the commission because of the activity shown in opposing the increase of gas rates. Two Rushville gas companies were granted a fifty per cent increase and because the city authorities opposed the increase and is still opposing the right of the commission to increase rates the officials here believe they brought on the ill-feeling of the commission towards the city.

The city was gone so far even as to institute court proceedings, which if successful will declare the law under which the commission was created unconstitutional. Because of this attitude of the city it is believed the administration has incurred the enmity of the commission to such a point that there will be no decision on the water rates here as long as the present administration is in power.

The city administration could have avoided all this trouble with the commission and obtained the raise in water rates, it is stated, if it had not followed its platform pledge. One of the planks of the Republican platform was that the administration oppose an increase in gas rates. In following out this course the city has apparently shattered all chances of obtaining anything beneficial from the commis-

FIRE MAY HAVE BEEN WORK OF INCENDIARY

Speculation is Rife as to Cause of Blaze That Destroyed Leather Products Co.

FIRM SAID TO HAVE ENEMIES

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 18.—Speculation was rife here today as to the cause of the fire and explosion that late yesterday destroyed with $35,000 loss the factory of the American Leather Products company.

President Ross Masson was asked today what caused the fire.

"I don't know," he said, and added "we have enemies."

Masson said the fire might have been of incendiary origin, but said he believed it started from spontaneous combustion.

The factory has been making artillery harness for the allies. Four men were painfully burned and 18 girls on the second floor had a narrow escape.

Unfrosted Priest Dies in Electric Chair at Sing Sing For Murder of Anna Aumuller.

FAREWELL FOR HIS MOTHER

Doomed Man Walks Boldly to the Death Chair and Closes His Eyes Calmly.

(By United Press.)
Ossining, N. Y., Feb. 18.—Hans Schmidt today paid the death penalty for the murder of Anna Aumuller. The unfrosted priest was executed in the electric chair at Sing Sing prison at dawn. Schmidt was given three contracts of 1,800 volts. The first was at 5:51 and he was pronounced dead at 5:59.

Schmidt's crime consisted of cutting to pieces the body of the woman with whom he had been living and casting it into the East river.

The doomed man strode boldly ahead of his attendants as he approached the chair. Then turning abruptly he addressed the witnesses in sharp tones in a last farewell to his mother in Germany.

"Please give my mother my last wishes," he said. "It is for her."

Schmidt then quietly closed his eyes and died calmly.

Schmidt is the man who told his attorney he wanted to die in the electric chair in the hope that his innocence would afterward be established and capital punishment thereby would be stopped.

It was on Sept. 5, 1913, that the upper part of Anna Aumuller's dismembered body was found in the river off Woodcliff, N. J. Ten days afterward, by persistent work on the part of Police Inspector Faurot the mystery was solved to the satisfaction of the police.

The body was identified as that of a former servant in the rectory of St. Boniface's church, and Schmidt who for three years had been performing the functions of a priest in New York, was arrested in the rectory of St. Joseph's church. On the day of his arrest the priest made a full confession, in which he admitted that he killed the girl and cut her body into nine pieces. His statements on that occasion were so startling that his sanity was questioned, and experts were called by the state. A month later they pronounced him sane and shamming insanity. Four alienists were then called by the defense. After several examinations they went on the stand at his two trials, the one in December, 1913, and the other in February, 1914, and swore that he was incurably insane.

At the first trial two of the jurors held that he was insane and a disagreement resulted. At both of them the State based its case largely on his own story at the time of his arrest, supported by a mass of corroborative testimony. At the second trial, although he interposed the same defense, he was convicted.

He was sentenced on Feb. 12. Three days afterward he sent for Assistant District Attorney Delehanty and confessed that he had been shamming insanity up to and during the time of his trials, and that the ideas which had been advanced to the alienists had been gained not from his own experience, but from reading a medical book dealing with dementia praecox.

MBANY TROUBLES DUE TO WEAK KIDNEYS

"It is no use advertising a medicine unless the medicine itself is good enough to back up the claims you make for it," said Johnson's Drug Store the popular Druggists, to a Daily Republican man. "On the other hand it is a pleasure to sell a medicine when the customers come in afterward and tell you how much good it has done them. And that is why we like to sell and recommend Solvax, the great kidney remedy. We have so much faith in this article that we are going to guarantee it in the future and will return the money to any purchaser of Solvax whom it does not help."

This shows great faith in Solvax. It really is a most unusual medicine because it overcomes the worst cases of kidney complaint by removing the cause. It goes straight to the seat of the trouble. It soaks right in and cleans out the kidneys and makes them pass off all the uric acid and poisonous waste matter that lodges in the joints and muscles causing rheumatic pains; soothes and heals the bladder and quickly ends all such troubles.

SAYS DRINK LEMONADE FOR RHEUMATISM

Relief from rheumatism and sciatica can be obtained by drinking lemonade and avoiding alcoholic drinks.

To get rid of this stubborn disease, however; to stop the twinges, pain and swelling, and drive the poisonous accumulations from the joints and muscles, all generously-inclined druggists will tell you to take half a teaspoonful of Rheuma daily until all misery ceases.

Rheuma is a powerful remedy, because only a powerful remedy can overcome such a terrible disease; but Rheuma acts speedily—the first dose taken and you'll know that you will soon be your healthy, happy self again.

Johnson's Drug Store and all druggists know what Rheuma will do, for they sell a great deal of it and guarantee that two 50-cent bottles will overcome rheumatic agony or money back. (Advertisement)

Amusements

"Stronger than Death" is the title of the first picture at the Gem tonight. It is a powerful two reel drama featuring Arthur Shirley and Lon Chaney. The other picture tonight is a comedy entitled "Greed and Gasoline." Gertrude Shelby, Reggy Morris and Fatty Voss are featured and it is said to present a funny story. Tomorrow night the three reel drama "The Tale of the C" will be shown. Mary Fuller is featured in this one.

The Princess offers the feature picture "The Price of Folly" for the program tonight. Edith Storey and Antonio Moreno are featured. It is a drama with a French setting into which is introduced the familiar figures of the Paris youth of good family who spends his time and cash in the company of undeniable beauty and doubtful morals. The siren in the case is a celebrated dancer upon whom he lavishes attention until his fortune vanishes. Edith Storey as the dancer is graceful at all times and her peculiar smile, with something oddly sinister in it, reveals the nature of the demimonde queen better than words. It is said to be one of the most remarkable films ever made and is certainly one of the most dramatic. The awakening and reconciliation is a pretty piece of sentiment and brings about a satisfactory conclusion to a drama which will interest all admirers of the traditional French story with all its accompanying tragedy and sensation. In the support of Miss Storey and Antonio Moreno are to be found Charles Kent, Louise Beaudet, Harry T. Morey, Ethel Coeoran and Arthur Cozine.

Combing Won't Rid Hair Of Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

How We Wash Your Linen

At our modern laundry your clothes are washed by being placed inside a large perforated cylinder which revolves inside a water tight case. The case holds the water—the cylinder carries the garments through it.

With every revolution the clothes are carried through the water and dropped again into it. This and the constant motion work the water and soap suds through the clothes, and so loosen up and carry away the dirt without the wear of the rubbing process.

In our washing process we change the water upon your clothes seven times. These waters range in temperature from cold to boiling hot. We use pure soap, plenty of it, and the best bluing money can buy.

Naturally we make your clothes whiter, cleaner and sweeter—and guarantee their perfect sanitary condition.

SWEDES SEND OUT WARNING TO PEOPLE

(By United Press.)
Washington, Feb. 18.—The Swedish government in reply to the German ad Austrian proclamation that armed merchantmen will be attacked after February 29 has issued a warning to Swedish citizens in all lands not to travel on such vessels.
The action of the Swedish government caused tremendous interest in Washington. It was pointed out that those who have insisted that the United States should take just such a step would seize on such an announcement as strengthening their position.
Sweden is known to be friendly to German however and in some quarters it is believed the German government may have influenced her action for the effect it may have in America.

"Cured of Patriotism"

Prof. William Lyon Phelps of Yale is quoted as saying:

"This war has cured me of patriotism as the chief mischief at the bottom of the war. I am done with it."

That sounds revolutionary and disloyal; even anarchistic. But it all depends on what is meant by "patriotism."

Prof. Phelps presumably uses the word to signify the national egotism which leads so many men and women, of all countries, to believe themselves incomparably better than the rest of the world. There is no denying that this crude sentiment, which usually masquerades as patriotism, is at the bottom of Europe's present troubles. If the leading belligerents, especially the Germans, had not felt themselves so overwhelmingly superior, and so justified in going to any extreme to assert their superiority, the war would never have occurred.

So-called "patriotism" is too often nothing but the aggregate selfishness, brutishness and bull-headedness of a nation's least admirable individuals. It often misrepresents the majority of individuals, and leads them astray. Citizens who, as men and women, would never dream of justifying selfishness, arrogance and brutality to gain their personal ends will justify the qualities in behalf of the nation of which they are a part. They will shout, unthinkingly, "Our country, right or wrong!" And too often they aid and abet their country in doing wrong.

Needless to say, this is not true patriotism. For patriotism is the flowering of the finest personal qualities of a nation's men and women. It regards the nation as the sum of all the gentlemen in it; and of all the ladies, and all the honest folk and the innocent children, and as something more.

To the true patriot the nation is a great personality; worthy of all the fine service any citizen can give it, better than any member of it, too fine and noble to be stained by any unworthy cause; or any dishonorable motive.

Surely no good American would want to be "cured" of this sort of patriotism.

Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo has secured an additional and emergency appropriation of $50,000 for expenditure before July 1 in the rural sanitation work of the Bureau of Health. If there are any deserving Democrats who are doctors, there won't be any difficulty in spending the money.

In view of the high cost of automobile fuel gas, it seems as if the enormous quantities of hot air used in selling the machines should be utilized.

Anyway we have Conscription in this country during Leap Year.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards' produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid liver.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action. If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

SOME LOT OF HORSES

Cicero Vance has received a clipping out of a newspaper at Los Angeles, Cal., from his son, Jess Vance, who lives in Los Angeles, concerning the shipment of $2,000,000 worth of horses to be used by the French in the war. The French government has had a corps of twenty man traveling all of the southwest part of the United States rounding up all the available horses for cavalry, light and heavy artillery. The $2,000,000 order has not been filled yet, but it is expected purchased in southern California that at least 10,000 more will be and 5,000 in lower California.

JONATHAN JENNINGS—3

After serving the state for six years as governor, Jonathan Jennings, was again elected as representative to congress. For eight consecutive years thereafter he represented the second congressional district. In 1830 he was defeated by General John Carr. "The defeat of Jennings at the election was not because the people had lost confidence in his judgment or ability to serve them, but because they believed such a result would conduce to his good. He was of convivial habits, and at Washington had become a regular drinker. His friends saw the habit was growing on him, and were fearful that if they continued him in public office he would become a drunkard. Therefore, many of them voted against him, believing such a course was best for him. The habit—the single vice of his life followed him to his grave."—Woolen.

Republican Candidate For Clerk

Subject to Primary Election March 7th

GEO. B. MOORE, Jr.

Having been the Republican nominee for Clerk in 1912, which required considerable time and some expense, both cheerfully given; the privilege of again making the race, when, from a Republican viewpoint, the political outlook is very much brighter, would be appreciated, very much.

To The Republicans of Rush Co.

I wish to say to the Republicans of Rush county that I am a candidate for the nomination of STATE SENATOR for the district of Hancock, Rush and Decatur Counties. I was your nominee for the same office in 1914, when the district was composed of Hancock, Rush and Fayette, and ran ahead of the State ticket in each County.

I did not seek the office at that time, but accepted when there seemed to be no chance of election, and did my part to bring success to the party. I led the ticket in Hancock County by several hundred votes. I am asking for your support in the nomination, and if nominated will do all I can to be elected. I take this method of soliciting your support as I will be unable to see all personally.

Thanking you for anything you may do in my behalf, I am,

Yours most sincerely,

ORA MYERS

The commission has been two years without allowing the city a thirty-five cent increase and several big deals have been put across without proper investigation, it is said. In the Lafayette deal the commission did not ascertain the value of the property involved by a physical valuation and apparently took the company's word for it. The administration here has obtained an idea that the commission is opposed to municipally-owned plants and favors private corporations.

To what extent the commission is looked upon in an unenviable light is shown in Wayne county. There the candidates for the legislatures are being asked whether they will try to put a stop to what seems to be disastrous policies which the public service commission is pursuing in its interpretations and administrations of the state regulatory law.

In the meantime Rushville expects little from the commission and indications are that the city will get just about what it expects.

ABLE TO RETURN TO DAILY WORK

G. W. Schisler, of Muncie Has Not Lost an Hour's Time Since Taking Tanlac.

Muncie, Ind., Feb. 18.—"One bottle of Tanlac has done me more good than all the other medicines I have taken in the last four months," G. W. Schisler, who lives on Rural Route No. 12, near Muncie, said recently.

"I have suffered with kidney trouble for several months. For the last four months it has been particularly severe, and I have had to lose considerable time from my work as a result. I suffered most during the night and early in the morning. My back was so stiff that I could hardly straighten up. My kidneys were irregular. I didn't sleep well and had to get up often. My stomach also was in bad condition. I was subject to spells of dizziness.

"Since I began taking Tanlac I have resumed my work and haven't lost an hour's time. The kidney trouble has been greatly relieved and the stomach trouble benefited. The pains in my back are not so severe, and my kidneys are more regular than they have been for a long time. I am sleeping better and my appetite has improved. In fact, I am better in every way."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, that has proved such a boon to thousands of Indiana people, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, rheumatism, insomnia, febrile circulation and the like.

"Forty or fifty year ago," he continued, "one-half the church members were under forty years of age. Now one-half of them are under twenty. Not many years ago people would argue that a young person of fifteen or sixteen years of age could not understand the things of the soul and could not decide. But now it is conceded the youth of ten years may make up his or her mind about salvation.

"If the church does her full duty, she must lay as much emphasis on the training of young people as on adults. The church has a great work to do. It is time that the church as an institution is study life. She must study the mental, physical, spiritual and social side of life. She must understand the chief physical characteristic of a child is activity. Seven out of every ten churches put their Sunday school children on stiff benches or little red chairs. Time and again the question of the restlessness of boys and girls has arisen in these conferences. They are not restless. It is activity misdirected by you.

"It is the duty of the church to study the unfolding life and capitalize the fact that boys and girls between the ages of nine and twelve memorize things rapidly. If we take advantage of that, we have some Bible students. And it does not pay to argue with the young person of sixteen to eighteen who gets skeptical. Reason with them in the right course.

"What does the church do on the social side? Stands off and throws stones at the things the young people are enjoying nowadays. Young people play cards and dance because they are working along the least resistance. It is the business of the church to recognize the social needs of the young people and provide a program for them."

Carl Van Winkle of Butler college spoke on "Advantages of a College Education." He cited statistics to show that it does pay from a commercial point view, aside from any other. He recalled that the average laborer makes $450 a year, in forty years will earn $18,000 and that the average high school graduate earns $1,000 a year and in forty years, the average life, would earn $40,000. This shows he is paid $10 a day for every one spent in schools. He declared a common school education increased a man's earning capacity fifty per cent, a high school education one hundred per cent, and a college education from two to three hundred per cent.

RICHMOND GAS CASE IS HEARD

Company is Asking The Right to Charge Seventy Cents a Thousand Cubic Feet

CITY ENTERS OBJECTIONS

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Feb. 18.—Whether the Richmond Light, Heat, and Power company is entitled to and in need of "temporary relief" or whether the citizens of Richmond are entitled to gas as forty cents a 1,000 cubic feet was the issue before the public service commission today. The company recently filed a petition asking "temporary relief" and alleged that despite large consumption of gas, it has been unable to pay operating expenses, depreciation and interest on the outstanding securities. Two years of operation under the present 40-cent rate had shown deficits, the company averred. The company asks a 70-cent rate. On the other hand the city objects to any increase, stating it would be unwarranted.

The commission recently issued an order allowing the city to buy the plant. The company has until February 21 to appeal. An appeal may depend on the action of the commission on the "temporary relief" petition.

A banquet followed this, when sixteen of the members dined at the Scanlan House. PATRIOTIC PARTY.

Nothing had been omitted yesterday afternoon to gather an interesting group of ladies together and to entertain them royally, when the members of the D. A. R. gave a sewing party in the form of an open meeting at the beautiful home of Mrs. C. A. Mauzy in North Harrison street. With patriotic decorations a beautiful atmosphere had been created in which the guests, which numbered perhaps seventy-five, were entertained. Over each of the mantles, in the doorways, and over the bannister of the stairs the graceful folds of the American flags were draped and lent a patriotic appearance. A number of beautiful potted ferns were here and there and from each of them, a number of tiny flags were projecting. An air of fragrance was given by the wall pockets filled with cherry blossoms, peeping from nooks and corners. In the four spacious adjoining rooms, the guests were seated where they enjoyed the interesting program over their needlework. Mrs. Will Dill presided graciously over the meeting and announced the numbers on the program, the first of which was a beautiful solo by Mrs. Will Amos, who sang "Our Emblem," one of the D. A. R. songs. In her paper on "Mt. Vernon," Mrs. D. D. VanOsdel led the guests in a tour of inspection through the old home of George Washington and its environs, bringing out interesting sidelights on the life of Washington through his home life. The paper showed excellent preparation. Mrs. Wilford Grindle's paper on "Early Colonial Industries" was equally instructive, dwelling on the great help of women in the industries of the time and our debt to these women for modern home making. Mrs. Carl Beher closed the program with two beautiful solos, "Indiana" and "Rose in the Bud."

The guests were then invited into the dining room, set in typical colonial style. Wall pockets containing spring flowers made fragrant the room, in which flags were also used.

In the center of the dining table a beautiful cut glass candelabra contained a number of burning red candles. Mrs. D. D. VanOsdel and Mrs. Sarah Guffin poured coffee from the beautiful colonial silver coffee service. Cherry pie, a la mode, apropos of the day, and mints were also served. The affair in all was a well planned, well executed and greatly enjoyed one. Among the guests were Mrs. Ruby Strong of Indianapolis, Mrs. Jackson, of Anderson, and Miss Clara Haydon of Lexington, Ky.

The Rebekah degree staff will meet tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY.

Anticipating the coming birthday of George Washington, decorations suggestive of that holiday were used yesterday when Mrs. Robert L. Tompkins entertained the members of the Grand Club and their husbands at dinner. The three tables of players spent the pleasant afternoon over the card tables in several engrossing rounds of Bridge. At six o'clock, when the gentlemen arrived, the twenty-four guests were ushered into the dining room, which was radiantly beautiful, thanks to the tiny hatches, cherries and other emblems suggestive of the day. In the center of the long table, where all the guests were seated, red roses formed a graceful centerpiece. At some places were tiny busts of the father of our country, at others were perky little cherry trees, a cute little fan sprung from the handles of the hatchets that were also souvenirs, and placed here and there upon the table, too, were a number of these clever little emblems. An elegant turkey dinner faultlessly served was then enjoyed as the jovial party made merry over the festive board. The evening hours were enlivened by a few games of Bridge. The out-of-town guests was Mrs. Carpenter, of St. Louis, who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Will M. Sparks.

GOOD PROGRAM.

The Home Economics Club, which meets with Mrs. Roy Mayse at her home at 218 West Fourth street on Saturday afternoon at two o'clock, has an interesting program in store. Mrs. C. H. Gilbert has a paper on "Home Economics" and Miss Ruth Spivey has a sketch on "The Life of Ellen H. Richey." All those desiring to join the club are asked and urged to be present at this meeting.

THE AMERICAN TOBACCO COMPANY

THEY SUFFER BY COMPARISON

Statistics on South American Trade Under Two Tariff Laws Are Very Illuminating.

EXPORTS ON THE DECREASE

Likewise, Imports For First Ten Months of 1913 Were $106,000,000 Less Than in 1915.

Washington, Feb. 18.—Although exports to South America during the ten months ended October 1915 were $36,000,000 greater than for the first ten months of 1914, both under the Democratic tariff law, yet they were $8,000,000 less than for the first ten months of 1913, nine months of which was under the Republican tariff law, despite the fact that European markets were largely cut off, thus causing the South American republics to look to the United States to supply deficiencies. On the other hand, imports from South America for the first ten months of 1915 were $66,000,000 greater than for the first ten months of 1914, both periods under Democratic tariff, and $106,000,000 greater for the first ten months of 1915 than for the first ten months of 1913, under a Republican tariff.

The balance of trade against us for the first ten months of 1913, Republican law, was $30,000,000. For the first ten months of 1914 it was $113,500,000, and for the first ten months of 1915 it rose to $143,000,000.

Secretary Redfield and his understudy, Dr. Pratt, of the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, have been entertaining the public for the past few months with accounts of the wonderful trade increases with South America, and by comparing the 1915 with the 1914 periods, both under Democratic law, they are able, because the war has shifted trade currents, to make a fair showing, by ignoring the trade of 1913. As it is not to the interest of the present Administration the trade record of this country during the last year the Republican tariff law was in operation, 1913 is invariably omitted.

Imports from South America for the first ten months of 1913, were valued at $154,000,000; in 1914, Democratic tariff law, to $194,000,000; in 1915, Democratic law, $260,000,000. Exports for the same periods were, in 1913, $124,000,000; in 1914, $80,000,000; in 1915, $116,000,000.

The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and I had backaches and dizzy spells. As others of my family had used Doan's Kidney Pills with good success, I got some at Lytle's Drug Store. ENGLAND WILL NEVER GIVE UP

Will Continue Fighting Until Germany Agrees to Terms of Peace Proposed by Allies

NO ESTIMATE AS TO LENGTH Varies From Six Years to Six Weeks—British National Spirit is Changing

By ED. L. KEEN (U. P. Staff Correspondent.)
New York, Feb. 18.—"How long do you think the war will last?"

After the usual polite and more or less perfunctory inquiries as to the state of his health and what sort of a trip he had, judging from the writer's personal experience and observations in the last few hours, this is the first serious question fired at every American returning from Europe by everyone he meets.

Anticipating some such inquiry, and in order to guide him in forming an opinion, the writer had asked the same question of a lot of folk in England just before sailing on the Baltic for New York. It received almost as great a variety of replies as the number of Britishers interrogated—that is, as to time.

They ranged all the way from six weeks to six years.

But in their real essence all were alike. "Until Germany gives up!" was the unanimous verdict.

They're telling a good story now in London about the way premier Asquith is said to have answered this question at a recent social gathering. British cabinet members have become so used to parrying uncomfortable or puzzling queries on the floor of the House of Commons since the war began that they often, unconsciously carry their parliamentary armament into the drawing-room.

"How long do you think the war will last, Mr. Asquith?" inquired a fellow guest.

"I would have much preferred that the honorable gentleman had given me previous notice of this question," replied the Prime Minister in his most unctuous on-the-carpet tone, "but since he insists upon an immediate and explicit reply, I will say that the answer is in the negative."

Although the head of the British administration can't be persuaded to hazard a time guess on the duration of the war, both his public and his private utterances on the subject in recent weeks leave no doubt that he stands with every other Britisher whose opinion is at all worth considering, in the manifestly sincere and honest belief that the war will go on until Germany agrees to peace on the terms of the Allies.

Make no mistake about it, the Allies are out to win. They were never so determined or so united as they are today. That the recent "made in Germany" stories of likelihood of an early separate peace with Russia, or France, or England, are absolutely without foundation I am firmly convinced. Even in the event of the remote possibility that one or more of the allies might be persuaded to enter into separate peace negotiations with the Central Powers, England would go right on fighting.

It would be most difficult for anyone who has lived in the British atmosphere since before the war started and has watched the gradual alteration of the English national spirit from airy cocksureness through successive stages of bewilderment, humiliation, and lesson-learning, into one of relentless bull-dog tenacity of purpose, to arrive at any other conclusion.

Despite all the muddling of the past eighteen months—the military miscalculations, the diplomatic blunders, the political upheavals the industrial turmoils—the average Britisher has not only never despaired, he has never had any real doubt as to the outcome of the struggle. The more recent misfortunes—the loss of Bulgaria, the obliteration of Serbia and Montenegro, the failures in Gallipoli, and the troubles in Mesopotamia he has regarded as mere episodes, unpleasant it is true, but without any effect except possibly to retard triumph of the allies.

Tells Farmer How To Market His Farm Produce

The farmer who wishes to sell his products by parcel post, and the housewife who wishes to use this method of securing country produce for her table, will find many useful points in Farmers' Bulletin 703, "Suggestions for Parcel Post Marketing." This bulletin, in addition to explaining the postal rates and measurement limits for parcel post matter, discusses in some detail the types of containers which are most successful and the methods of grading and packing produce, so that it will reach the consumer in good condition, and be attractive in quality and appearance. In treating standards for parcel post shipments, the bulletin tells how to select, handle and pack poultry, and how to grade and pack the various fruits and vegetables which the average farmer is likely to market through the post office.

The bulletin points out that one of the common obstacles to establishing parcel post communication between farmer and consumer is that the farmer may be unwilling to offer goods at a price which attracts the consumer, or that the consumer may offer a price lower than the farmer can obtain at a local market. To quote the bulletin:

"Not only must the farmer have something additional to the usual price to compensate him for the extra work, container, and postage required, but the consumer must also have something to attract him to marketing by parcel post. In determining what the price shall be, both the farm price and the retail price paid by the consumer when he markets in the ordinary way should be taken into consideration. The consumer must receive either a better article at the usual retail price or an article of the grade usually purchased at some concession in price.

"It is probable that the point which make the strongest appeal to the average consumer is that he can secure by parcel post a fresher, brighter, more attractive, and thus possibly a better product than he can obtain otherwise.

"The average producer, as a rule, does not realize the importance of appearance as a factor in selling goods and frequently is careless and indifferent in preparing produce for market. The consumer, on the other hand, relies very largely upon appearance in selecting food supplies, and unattractive articles are passed by promptly.

"A personal acquaintance should be established between producer and consumer, when they come into business contact. This will help a great deal in furthering parcel post marketing, and also will eliminate many of the misunderstandings which may occur from time to time. A definite understanding should exist as to the duties of each in regard to remittances, claims for damaged or spoiled produce, and the preservation and return of containers."

FOULLY ASSAULTED.

Dopetown, Ind., Feb. 17.—Clubbed into insensibility with the new patent egg beater he was taking home to his wife, Danagreely Columrule, editor of The Dopetown Evening Headache, was found by friends under the railroad culvert east of town early today. Columrule's assailant has not been apprehended, but August Schnitz, the local saloonkeeper, is being shadowed by the constable. Dopetown will go dry May 1 and Schnitz is known to have threatened violence to Columrule because Columrule, a staunch prohibitionist, printed the following comment on the wet and dry election:

"The first of May this year will be the last of August."

HENS WILL HAVE TO GO IN FOR EUGENICS.

(By United Press.)

Columbus, O., Feb. 17.—It's up to the hen to go in for eugenics. The word has gone out from dealers that only eggs of a certain size, color, shape and weight are desirable. Hens belonging to chicken families not producing according to these plans and specifications are to get the ax.

"Who were your father and mother?" Upon the hen's answer to that will depend her chance of living. Ohio egg experts declare the dealers will have nothing but eggs of a color popular in their particular section and uniform in size for packing purposes. There is no difference in the taste of food values of the different eggs, but the color must satisfy the whims of the buyers and the size must fit the crates. New York won't take eggs with brown shells and Boston won't accept those with white shells. The experts have agreed that a dozen eggs should weigh not less than 24 and not more than 28 ounces. The egg should have a large diameter one and one-fifth times the smaller diameter, and should not be round or long-pointed. They should be uniform in color, have strong shells and be free from cracks and transparent spots. And the hens had better follow these rules, the experts say, or they'll certainly be massacred.

Liquid blue is a weak solution, avoid it. Buy Red Cross Ball Blue, the blue that's all blue.

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

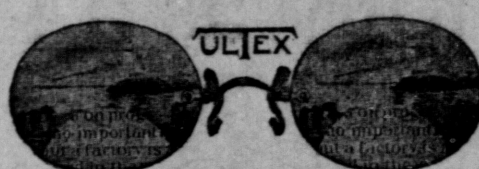

Says Backache is a sign you have been eating too much meat, which forms uric acid.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.

CHILD LABOR LAW UP TO COMMITTEE

Bill Prohibiting Interstate Commerce of Products Made by Child Labor Likely to Pass

LOOK FOR AN EARLY REPORT

Factory Workers Will be Compelled to Observe An Eight Hour Day Under The Act

(By United Press.)
Washington, Feb. 18.—The fate of the Keating-Owen bill, excluding from interstate commerce the products made by child labor, now lies with the Senate committee on Labor and Education, headed by Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia. Friends of child labor are seeking to force a report on the bill.

If the bill is brought to the Senate floor early in the session, they say, it will be impossible to talk it to death. The bill, which has the endorsement of the National Child Labor association, was passed by an overwhelming vote in the House, where opposition to it was led by certain southern Democrats who cling to the old state rights theory which resents interference in local affairs by the federal government. Exactly 46 votes were cast against the bill, chiefly the votes of representatives from North and South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama, where child labor issued in cotton mills. Many of the younger southern Democrats however, went contrary to the state rights doctrine and voted with the majority. Incidentally the passage of the bill is a striking commentary on how tunationality of legislating against opinion has changed on the consti-child labor under the interstate commerce clause of the constitution.

In 1907 the House Judiciary committee, including in its membership Charles E. Littlefield, David A. De Armond and other lawyers, decided unanimously that the jurisdiction over child labor falls under the police powers of the state and not under the commerce clause. When the vote on the Keating-Owen bill was taken, one lone northern Republican, Richard Wayne Parker of New Jersey, voted in the negative. Parker is one of the men who signed the 1907 report denying the right of Congress to...
The bill prohibits employment in mine or quarry of children under 16 years of age, and in factories and canneries of children under 14. Furthermore, children between 14 and 16 years of age, working in factories, must observe the eight hour law.

Hammond, Feb. 18.—Girls, don't move to Hammond. Physical Director Bill Mead has introduced a new idea during the training of his high school basket ball squad. "Love and athletics don't mix. Fudge and dancing and spooning are not good diet for the training table," according to Mead. Consequently he has ordered all the high school girls to cancel all dates with boys on the team and not to make any more.

(By United Press.)
Washington, Feb. 17.—"I am not in favor of the greatest navy in the world," Chairman Tillman of the senate naval affairs committee said on the floor. "I can't believe the president spoke coolly or in good judgment when he made that statement."

ONLY GENTLEMEN WANTED

Authorization Has Been Granted by War Department And Capt. Shirley is in Charge

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Feb. 18.—Only "gentlemen" need apply for membership in the cavalry troop which is being organized here under the authorization granted the Indiana National Guard by the war department.

"The membership of course will be confined to gentlemen" said Captain F. C. Shirley of the troop. "The consideration that will influence the committee in the selection of the members of the troop are physical fitness, a sincere desire for military training, a love for horses and the men."

Because the troop already has been termed the "Millionaires Club," Shirley carefully pointed out that this name cannot apply.

"Although it is true that many of the present applicants are in very comfortable circumstances," says the statement, "they are not millionaires. Hence the application of the name, 'Millionaires Club' is not proper."

Each trooper furnishes his own horse. Shirley, who is a lawyer, saw service in the Spanish-American war and in the Philippines.

Steel Magnate Will Outdo Rome in Beauty And Expenditure of Money on His Place

EXPECTS TO SPEND A MILLION

(By United Press.)
Ebensburg, Pa., Feb. 18.—The Roman baths, the sunken gardens, cascades, pergolas, wide, rolling sweeps of green splashed with the rich colorings of rare flowers and all the other luxurious, exquisite and expensive things that will surround "Immergrun" the new Million Dollar summer home of Steel Magnate Charles M. Schwab, which was started here today, will rival the glory of any other multi-millionaire's summer home in America.

The baths, encased in plateglass will cost $150,000, many times the cost of the Roman baths of Lueulus, the most luxurious Roman of them all. Schwab probably may walk into his finished palace July 1, 1917. The house proper will cost $250,000, the gardens $350,000 and other things some more. It will be one of the show places in Pennsylvania. The site is not far from that originally chosen by Andrew Carnegie for his Pennsylvania castle, which later he gave to the state for the Cresson tuberculosis sanatorium. Schwab started improvements last year by having the big frame house which the family heretofore has used moved 150 yards to the westward on huge trestles above the top of trees seventy-five feet high.

Swift's Fertilizers Continue to Make Winners

If you used Swift's Fertilizer and obtained the best yield in the state you would, of course, give our fertilizer the credit that was due it. NOW, if the following year's Champion used Swift's and this performance repeated from year to year, you naturally would begin to think that Swift's Red Steer Brand is a pretty good fertilizer, would you not?

Look at the Record and Decide Yourself.

There can be no better proof of the value of a fertilizer than the records made by those who use it. There must be merit in a fertilizer that produces the results stated below:

- Mr. Will Essig, Tipton, Indiana—131 bushels corn per acre. The largest yield of which there is any record in Indiana. Mr. Essig was recently awarded a gold medal at the Panama Exposition. Used SWIFT'S.
- Mr. Norris McHenry, Elizabethtown, Ind.—112 bushels per acre. Winner of the Indiana 1914 Men's Five Acre Corn Contest. Used SWIFT'S. In 1915 he was induced to use other than Swift's Fertilizer and got no prize.
- Mr. F. R. McHenry, Norris' father—used no fertilizer in 1914 and won no prize, but as his son won the State Championship in 1914 with the aid of Swift's Fertilizer, Mr. McHenry used Swift's in 1915, got 87.3 bushels of ripe corn per acre and won the sweepstakes for men in the Bartholomew County Five Acre Corn Contest.
- The 1st, 2d, 3d and 4th prizes for the highest yields of good quality corn in the 1915 Five Acre Corn Contest for men in Bartholomew County, Indiana, all went to users of Swift's Fertilizer. Also in the Boys' One Acre Corn Contest in the same county, the 1st, 2d, 3d and 4th prizes went to users of Swift's Fertilizer.
- The Ohio 1914 Champion Corn Grower, Arnett Rose, Alger, Ohio—153.9 bushels—used SWIFT'S.
- The Ohio 1915 Champion Corn Grower, Dewey Haines, Arcanum, Ohio—154 bushels—used SWIFT'S.
- The Indiana 1914 Boy Champion Corn Grower, Roy Friedersdorf, Elizabethtown, Ind.—128.8 bu.—used SWIFT'S.
- Gordon Reap, Elizabethtown, Indiana, who was third last year, is County Champion with 105.73 bushels. He also used SWIFT'S this year.

There certainly MUST be something in Swift's Fertilizers that PRODUCES RESULTS. Swift's blood, bone and tankage fertilizers make prize winners.

If YOU do not use Swift's Fertilizers, you are not sure that you are using the best fertilizer obtainable. You want the best—then buy SWIFT'S—the Red Steer Brand.

Candidate For Joint Senator

The campaign of Ora Myers for the Republican nomination for joint senator from Decatur, Rush and Hancock counties is commending itself to the Republican voters of Rush county. Myers' vote-getting ability is best illustrated by the fact that he was elected mayor of Greenfield, where the Democratic majority had always been close to two hundred and where they had elected none but a Democratic mayor in twenty-five years. Rush, Hancock and Fayette counties elected a senator until the Democratic gerrymander was put through in 1915. Decatur was taken from Bartholomew and placed in this district. Two years ago Bartholomew and Decatur elected a senator, who will hold over for the next session of the legislature. In case Mr. Myers' opponent from Greensburg should be nominated, it would give Bartholomew and Decatur counties both senators. Mr. Myers was the Republican candidate for joint senator two years ago and ran ahead of the state ticket in every county. That is one of the reasons he deserves the nomination again.

CROWDED DOCKET MAY PREVENT TRIAL

Gary Justice of Peace Will Not Likely Get a Hearing During The Present Term

HE FACES NINE CHARGES

(By United Press.)
Crownpoint, Feb. 18.—Because the Lake county circuit court's docket is crowded it was believed here today that Edward Gross, Gary justice of the peace, would not be tried for some time on charges growing out of his various clashes with the Gary police in his saloon and courtroom.

Gross has been out on $7,500 bail since his arrest several months ago. There are many who believe he will never be tried.

Gross faces nine charges—two for felonies and seven for misdemeanors. He is charged with assault with intent to kill, felonies, assault, resisting an officer, etc., etc.

The trouble between the squire and the Gary police is of long standing. The police allege they sought to arrest Gross when he was about to throw a whiskey bottle at a litigant in his court and that the squire, who refuses to recognize the power of the police to arrest him, then threatened the police.

DUG HIS GRAVE; NOW HAS LOVER

Veteran, 89 Years Old Prepared to Die, But His Sweetheart Has Changed Everything

TOMB STONE EVEN ERECTED

(By United Press.)
Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 18.—Out in Forest Home cemetery there is an open grave waiting for Francis Marion Collins, an inmate of the Soldiers' home in this city. Five years ago, after Collins had been denied permission by the cemetery authorities to dig his own grave, he went to the city of the dead one dark, rainy night and by the light of a lantern prepared his own grave. Collins is 89 years old. He had a tomb stone, inscribed as he directed, with everything but the date of his death, erected.

But though Collins is nearly four score and ten years old and ready to die, he doesn't want to give up the ghost just yet. After making preparations for the last act of the long drama of his life, he turned eagerly to life and love. In fact he has a sweetheart now. Her first name is Annette. He won't tell the rest. She is keeping the veteran interested in life by writing him interesting love letters and visiting him at the home several times a year. Collins served four years during the war in the famous Company I, One Hundred and Thirty-fourth Pennsylvania infantry, Army of the Potomac.

BRAZIL WANTS TARIFF WALL

Believe Importations of American Products Are Hurting Home Industries in That Country

DUTY ON SOME 20 PER CENT

Especially Demand a Higher Rate on Flour—Fight on With American Millers

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)
Rio de Janeiro, Feb. 1 (By Mail) —Because they believe American flour and other American products imported by Brazil are crippling home industries here, Brazilian business interests have asked the Brazilian federal senate to build up the tariff law and keep United States manufacturers from running away with the Brazilian domestic market.

Certain American goods now pay 20% less import duty into Brazil than is paid on the same class of goods imported into Brazil from other countries. This favor is shown to these American goods because United States abandoned the idea of charging a 3 cent duty on coffee imported into the United States from Brazil.

The Brazilian flour millers and the Commercial Association of Brazil now say this agreement is working great benefit to the United States and great harm to Brazil. They say coffee prices are so high that Brazil can choose its market; and that therefore Brazil will be able to dispose of its coffee in the U. S. whether it is taxed or not; and that therefore it is useless to continue the agreement and let the U. S. manufacturers gobble up all the domestic trade of Brazil in other lines. In proof of their contention the millers cite figures to show that since the agreement was made importations of American flour have jumped from 54,000,000 pounds in 1906 to 152,000,000 in 1914.

The appeal before the federal senate is only for a higher flour tariff, but the tariff upward on condensed milk, rubber articles, clocks and watches, paints, typewriters, refrigerators, pianos scales, electric fans, cement, building material and furniture and other articles.

American interests in Brazil and Brazilian business men are watching the millers' fight closely. Practically all the Brazilian flour mills are working on British capital, but they are influential in the commercial organizations of the country. American flour has enjoyed a 30% lower tariff in Brazil than any other imported flour and is even said to be far under the price of the domestic product.

MANY TROUBLES DUE TO WEAK KIDNEYS

"It is no use advertising a medicine unless the medicine itself is good enough to back up the claim you make for it," said Johnson's Drug Store, the popular druggists, to a Daily Republican man. "On the other hand it is a pleasure to sell a medicine when our customers come in afterward and tell you how much good it has done them. And that is why we like to sell and recommend Solvax, the great kidney remedy. We have so much faith in this article that we are going to guarantee it in the future and will return the money to any purchaser of Solvax whom it does not help."

This shows great faith in Solvax. It really is a most unusual medicine because it overcomes the worst cases of kidney complaint by removing the cause. It goes straight to the seat of the trouble. It soaks right in and cleans out the kidneys and makes them pass off all the uric acid and poisonous waste matter that lodges in the joints and muscles, causing rheumatic pains; soothes and heals the bladder and quickly end all such troubles.

DRINK HOT TEA FOR A BAD COLD

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus driving a cold from the system.

Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

NEEDS PROGRAM FOR YOUNG FOLKS

Church Should Study Them and Meet Their Demands, G. L. Cook Asserts at Closing Session.

COUNTY CONFERENCE ENDS

Says Young People Dance and Play Cards Because They Follow Lines of Least Resistance.

It is high time that the church was studying life and outlining a program for boys and girls, young people and men and women. This is the task of the church right now, according to G. L. Cook of Indianapolis who made the chief address at the closing meeting of the county conference of Christian churches at the Main Street church Thursday night. The next meeting will be held here.

The meeting was perhaps the best in the history of county meetings. The interest was exceptionally good and the attendance large. Mr. Cook classed it as one of the best if not the best county conference which has been held this year, and there have been four each week since the first of January. Mr. Cook is superintendent of the Sunday school work in the state.

"The reports have been so complete, the churches so well represented and so many have been interested that the conference is really worth while," he declared.

He said that in the past the work of the church had been altogether with the adults. This is emphasized by the church architecture, he continued, because the idea has prevailed that all that was needed was a room a platform and some pews. Some changes are being undergone, he said, until the semi-modern period has been reached where the average church now adds a room for the Sunday school.

"We know boys and girls learn very little through their sense of hearing, yet we insist on preaching to them and teaching them, oftentimes, unattractive Sunday school lessons of the ungraded sort," he continued. "The young person learns through the sense of seeing and doing things for themselves."

"The prevailing type in the church is the revival. It is regarded as a cure-all for a run-down church. Latter day activities have brought in special workers among the Sunday school children and often the evangelist makes a direct appeal to them."

"But reverting to church architecture, if the church had the child in mind when constructing the building, why should not the pews be graded? Did you ever see a church with pews for children down in front?"

He paused a moment to let that thought sink in. Of course, no one had ever seen a church so constructed. Mr. Cook that described the discomfort of small children sitting in big pews. If they sit far out so that legs will swing down, they can't lean back. If they lean back, their legs are sticking straight out. He wanted to know how many adults would care to sit through a service either way. He said the pews were for standard sized adults and if there were ever any undersize, they generally grouped themselves about some place where there

Judge Sparks Spends Time Studying Arguments in Public Service Commission Case

NEW TRIAL IS DENIED LYNAM

Circuit court was all but deserted today as no cases were tried. Judge Sparks spent the day in study on argument submitted this week on the demurrer in the suit involving the city and the Public Service Commission. A decision is not expected soon as a large number of citations were given the court.

Judge Sparks has overruled a motion for a new trial in the case of the Greenfield Building and Loan association against Jerry Lynam, et al. The case is on a note and for the foreclosure of a mortgage. The suit was sent here from Hancock county and was tried last term of court.

Judge Gause of Newcastle was here a short time yesterday afternoon to enter some minutes in the case of Brickert against Owen L. Carr and the Rushville Milling company. Several motions were filed, but the issues have not been completed.

SPRING TAXES ARE BEING PAID NOW

Total of $2,500 is Collected Thursday and Rush Will Continue Until March 1.

UNTIL ASSESSORS GO TO WORK

The payment of the spring installment of taxes has started at the county treasurer's office. A total of $2,500 was collected yesterday. This rush is expected to continue until March 1 when the township assessors began work.

Most of the money paid in yesterday came from large taxpayers, with plenty of ready money in the banks. By paying their taxes these people avoid having to pay taxes on the money that would otherwise be assessed if it were to remain in the banks. This custom of lowering the amount of cash in the banks is followed every year by the large taxpayers.

It is also stated that between now and the first of March stocks and bonds, which are non-taxable will be sold rather freely to those persons desiring to avoid paying taxes on their money.

Miss Mary Ellen Carrol is able to be out after being ill for several days with throat trouble.

DEMOCRAT IS OUT FOR WATSON

George W. Caldwell, Former Mayor of Columbus, Says he Will Support Rushville Candidate.

AFTER SPEECH AT COLUMBUS

Candidacy Gains Considerable Momentum Following Campaign —There Crowds Cheers Him.

Coincident with the one-day campaign of James E. Watson in Bartholomew county comes announcement in the Columbus Republican that George W. Caldwell, who served the city of Columbus as mayor and who has been a life-long Democratic worker, is out for Watson for the Republican nomination for United States senator.

Watson was given a rousing reception at the meeting in Columbus Wednesday night, according to the account in the Columbus-Republican. The story says that the City Hall was jammed with people who cheered Mr. Watson to the echo and that "Mr. Watson's campaign gained considerable momentum during his short visit here (Columbus) can not be successfully disputed."

The most remarkable thing about Watson's campaign in Columbus was the announcement in last night's Columbus-Republican that the former Democratic mayor of Columbus was for Watson. The Republican says:

To friends this morning in Columbus, Mr. Caldwell made this absolute statement with the addition that he did not care who knew it. "I am for Watson and am working for him now," was the statement attributed to him.

While Mr. Watson was in his room at the Hotel St. Denis, Wednesday, Mr. Caldwell was a caller there and the two politicians went over the political situation in a thorough manner. Later in the day Mr. Caldwell had dinner with Mr. Watson at the hotel and when the campaigner spoke in the city hall Wednesday night, Mr. Caldwell was one of his most interested listeners.

This morning some of Mr. Watson's friends asked Mr. Caldwell if he cared whether they used the fact that he is for the Rushville man for senator. He is said to have made the reply quoted above.

While Mr. Caldwell has not authorized any interview or any statement relative to his political convictions, it is known that he has not been in sympathy with the Democratic party on the protective tariff question for some time. He is a business man who does things in a hurry and much of his correspondence is conducted by telegraph or long distance telephone. As a result of using each of these means of conveying messages he has come in contact with the Democratic revenue tax and he has paid out more for revenue stamps than any amount of protective tariff would have cost him.

The Watson men here were much elated today over Mr. Caldwell's position. They pointed to the commanding position he long has held here in Democratic political circles and to the deference that always has been shown by local Democrats to his political views. They were free to assert that Mr. Caldwell's action would mean the gain of many other Democratic votes for the Watson cause.

Mrs. William Cline of Lewisville underwent an operation this morning at the Sexton Sanatorium.

RUSHVILLE IS ALSO EXAMPLE

Lafayette, Huntington And Richmond Not Only Cities Dissatisfied With State Commission

RATE INCREASE IGNORED

Petition of City Administration For Right to Charge More For Water, Fled 2 Years Ago.

Dissatisfaction with the public service commission is becoming general all over the state as is indicated by reports from Lafayette, Richmond, Huntington and other cities. Rushville is included in this list and dissatisfaction here dates back almost two years.

This dissatisfaction feeling comes particularly from the city administration and thus involves the entire city. It has been close on to two years since a petition was filed with the commission asking for the right to increase water rates from $1.50 a thousand cubic feet to $1.85 per thousand cubic feet. The petition was filed early in 1914, or shortly after the present city administration came into power.

A hearing was had by the commission on the question of an increase, but as yet no ruling has been handed down despite the fact that the city has complied with certain requests of the commission. Meters were installed throughout the city and the revenue from water was cut almost in two, because it is being charged for under the old rates. The new rate would give the city a slightly increased revenue. There is no kick here against the proposed increase and none appeared before the commission opposing the increase as petitioned by the city.

The action of the commission in certain cases recently decided, namely the Geist-Murdock deal in which permission was given to bond the properties up to 100 per cent, and converting $5,400,000 of stocks, almost all of which had drawn no dividends or only an average of 1 per cent a year into six per cent state authorized gold bonds, tended more than ever to convince local people the commission was losing sight of the real purpose for which it was created.

The city officials have declared several times that they could not expect anything from the commission because of the activity shown in opposing the increase of gas rates. Two Rushville gas companies were granted a fifty per cent increase and because the city authorities opposed the increase and is still opposing the right of the commission to increase rates the officials here believe they brought on the ill-feeling of the commission towards the city.

The city was gone so far even as to institute court proceedings, which if successful will declare the law under which the commission was created unconstitutional. Because of this attitude of the city it is believed the administration has incurred the enmity of the commission to such a point that there will be no decision on the water rates here as long as the present administration is in power.

The city administration could have avoided all this trouble with the commission and obtained the raise in water rates, it is stated, if it had not followed its platform pledge. One of the planks of the Republican platform was that the administration oppose an increase in gas rates. In following out this course the city has apparently shattered all chances of obtaining anything beneficial from the commission.

FIRE MAY HAVE BEEN WORK OF INCENDIARY

Speculation is Rife as to Cause of Blaze That Destroyed Leather Products Co.

FIRM SAID TO HAVE ENEMIES

(By United Press.) Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 18.—Speculation was rife here today as to the cause of the fire and explosion that late yesterday destroyed with $35,000 loss the factory of the American Leather Products company.

President Ross Masson was asked today what caused the fire.

"I don't know," he said, and added "we have enemies."

Masson said the fire might have been of incendiary origin, but said he believed it started from spontaneous combustion.

The factory has been making artillery harness for the allies. Four men were painfully burned and 18 girls on the second floor had a narrow escape.

Unfrosted Priest Dies in Electric Chair at Sing Sing For Murder of Anna Aumuller.

FAREWELL FOR HIS MOTHER

Doomed Man Walks Boldly to the Death Chair and Closes His Eyes Calmly.

(By United Press.) Ossining, N. Y., Feb. 18.—Hans Schmidt today paid the death penalty for the murder of Anna Aumuller. The unfrosted priest, was executed in the electric chair at Sing Sing prison at dawn. Schmidt was given three contracts of 1,800 volts. The first was at 5:51 and he was pronounced dead at 5:59.

Schmidt's crime consisted of cutting to pieces the body of the woman with whom he had been living and casting it into the East river.

The doomed man strode boldly ahead of his attendants as he approached the chair. Then turning abruptly he addressed the witnesses in sharp tones in a last farewell to his mother in Germany.

"Please give my mother my last wishes," he said. "It is for her." Schmidt then quietly closed his eyes and died calmly.

Schmidt is the man who told his attorney he wanted to die in the electric chair in the hope that his innocence would afterward be established and capital punishment thereby would be stopped.

It was on Sept. 5, 1913, that the upper part of Anna Aumuller's dismembered body was found in the river off Woodcliff, N. J. Ten days afterward, by persistent work on the part of Police Inspector Faurot the mystery was solved to the satisfaction of the police.

The body was identified as that of a former servant in the rectory of St. Boniface's church, and Schmidt who for three years had been performing the functions of a priest in New York, was arrested in the rectory of St. Joseph's church.

On the day of his arrest the priest made a full confession, in which he admitted that he killed the girl and cut her body into nine pieces. His statements on that occasion were so startling that his sanity was questioned, and experts were called by the state. A month later they pronounced him sane and shamming insanity. Four alienists were then called by the defense. After several examinations they went on the stand at his two trials, the one in December, 1913, and the other in February, 1914, and swore that he was incurably insane.

At the first trial two of the jurors held that he was insane and a disagreement resulted. At both of them the State based its case largely on his own story at the time of his arrest, supported by a mass of corroborative testimony. At the second trial, although he interposed the same defense, he was convicted.

HANS SCHMIDT PAYS PENALTY

He was sentenced on Feb. 12. Three days afterward he sent for Assistant District Attorney DeLahanty and confessed that he had been shamming insanity up to and during the time of his trials, and that the ideas which had been advanced to the alienists had been gained not from his own experience, but from reading a medical book dealing with dementia praecox.

MBANY TROUBLES DUE TO WEAK KIDNEYS

"It is no use advertising a medicine unless the medicine itself is good enough to back up the claims you make for it," said Johnson's Drug Store the popular Druggists, to a Daily Republican man. "On the other hand it is a pleasure to come in afterward and tell you how much good it has done them. And that is why we like to sell and recommend Solvax, the great kidney remedy. We have so much faith in this article that we are going to guarantee it in the future and will return the money to any purchaser of Solvax whom it does not help."

This shows great faith in Solvax. It really is a most unusual medicine because it overcomes the worst cases of kidney complaint by removing the cause. It goes straight to the seat of the trouble. It soaks right in and cleans out the kidneys and makes them pass off all the urine acid and poisonous waste matter that lodges in the joints and muscles causing rheumatic pains; soothes and heals the bladder and quickly ends all such troubles.

SAYS DRINK LEMONADE FOR RHEUMATISM

Relief from rheumatism and sciatica can be obtained by drinking lemonade and avoiding alcoholic drinks.

To get rid of this stubborn disease, however, to stop the twinges, pain and swelling, and drive the poisonous accumulations from the joints and muscles, all generously-inclined druggists will tell you to take half a teaspoonful of Rheuma daily until all misery ceases.

Rheuma is a powerful remedy, because only a powerful remedy can overcome such a terrible disease; but Rheuma acts speedily—the first dose taken and you'll know that you will soon be your healthy, happy self again.

Johnson's Drug Store and all druggists know what Rheuma will do, for they sell a great deal of it and guarantee that two 50-cent bottles will overcome rheumatic agony or money back. (Advertisement)

Amusements

"Stronger than Death" is the title of the first picture at the Gem tonight. It is a powerful two reel drama featuring Arthur Sturley and Lon Chaney. The other picture tonight is a comedy entitled "Greed and Gasoline." Gertrude Shelby, Reggy Morris and Fatty Voss are featured and it is said to present a funny story. Tomorrow night the three reel drama "The Tale of the C" will be shown. Mary Fuller is featured in this one.

The Princess offers the feature picture "The Price of Folly" for the program tonight. Edith Storey and Antonio Moreno are featured. It is a drama with a French setting into which is introduced the familiar figures of the Paris youth of good family who spends his time and cash in the company of undeniable beauty and doubtful morals. The siren in the case is a celebrated dancer upon whom he lavishes attention until his fortune vanishes. Edith Storey as the dancer is graceful at all times and her peculiar smile, with something oddly sinister in it, reveals the nature of the demimonde queen better than words. It is said to be one of the most remarkable films ever made and is certainly one of the most dramatic. The awakening and reconciliation is a pretty piece of sentiment and brings about a satisfactory conclusion to a drama which will interest all admirers of the traditional French story with all its accompanying tragedy and sensation. In the support of Miss Storey and Antonio Moreno are to be found Charles Kent, Louise Beaudet, Harry T. Morey, Ethel Corcoran and Arthur Cozine.

Combing Won't Rid Hair Of Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

How We Wash Your Linen

At our modern laundry your clothes are washed by being placed inside a large perforated cylinder which revolves inside a water tight case. The case holds the water—the cylinder carries the garments through it. With every revolution the clothes are carried through the water and dropped again into it. This and the constant motion work the water and soap suds through the clothes, and so loosen up and carry away the dirt without the wear of the rubbing process. In our washing process we change the water upon your clothes seven times. These waters range in temperature from cold to boiling hot. We use pure soap, plenty of it, and the best bluing money can buy. Naturally we make your clothes whiter, cleaner and sweeter—and guarantee their perfect sanitary condition.

Head Stopped Up? Can't Breathe? Try the Vick Vap-O-Rub Treatment

Applied in Salve Form Over Throat and Chest Relieves by Inhalation and Absorption.

Vapor treatments are best for inflammations of the air passages. The vapors carry the medication direct to the inflamed surfaces without disturbing the stomach, as internal medicines will do. A very convenient vapor treatment is a good application of Vick's "Vap-O-Rub" Salve over the throat and chest, covered with a warm flannel cloth. The body heat releases vapors that are inhaled with every breath, opening the air passages, loosening the phlegm, and healing the raw surfaces. For deep chest colds, first apply hot wet towels to open the pores. Vick's is then absorbed through the skin, taking out that internal tightness and soreness. 25c, 50c, or $1.00.

Washington, Feb. 18.—The Swedish government in reply to the German ad Austrian proclamation that armed merchantmen will be attacked after February 20 has issued a warning to Swedish citizens in all lands not to travel on such vessels. The action of the Swedish government caused tremendous interest in Washington. It was pointed out that those who have insisted that the United States should take just such a step would seize on such an announcement as strengthening their position. Sweden is known to be friendly to German however and in some quarters it is believed the German government may have influenced her action for the effect it may have in America.

"Cured of Patriotism"

Prof. William Lyon Phelps of Yale is quoted as saying:

"This war has cured me of patriotism as the chief mischief at the bottom of the war. I am done with it."

That sounds revolutionary and disloyal; even anarchistic. But it all depends on what is meant by "patriotism."

Prof. Phelps presumably uses the word to signify the national egotism which leads so many men and women of all countries, to believe themselves incomparably better than the rest of the world. There is no denying that this crude sentiment, which usually masquerades as patriotism, is at the bottom of Europe's present troubles. If the leading belligerents, especially the Germans, had not felt themselves so overwhelmingly superior, and so justified in going to any extreme to assert their superiority, the war would never have occurred.

So-called "patriotism" is too often nothing but the aggregate selfishness, brutishness and bull-headedness of a nation's least admirable individuals. It often misrepresents the majority of individuals, and leads them astray. Citizens who, as men and women, would never dream of justifying selfishness, arrogance and brutality to gain their personal ends will justify the qualities in behalf of the nation of which they are a part. They will shout, unthinkingly, "Our country, right or wrong!" And too often they aid and abet their country in doing wrong.

Needless to say, this is not true patriotism. For patriotism is the flowering of the finest personal qualities of a nation's men and women. It regards the nation as the sum of all the gentlemen in it, and of all the ladies, and all the honest folk and the innocent children, and as something more.

To the true patriot the nation is a great personality worthy of all the fine service any citizen can give it, better than any member of it, too fine and noble to be stained by any unworthy cause or any dishonorable motive.

Surely no good American would want to be "cured" of this sort of patriotism.

Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo has secured an additional and emergency appropriation of $50,000 for expenditure before July 1 in the rural sanitation work of the Bureau of Health. If there are any deserving Democrats who are doctors, there won't be any difficulty in spending the money.

In view of the high cost of automobile fuel gas, it seems as if the enormous quantities of hot air used in selling the machines should be utilized.

Anyway we have Conserption in this country during Leap Year.

SOME LOT OF HORSES

Cicero Vance has received a clipping out of a newspaper at Los Angeles, Cal., from his son, Jess Vance, who lives in Los Angeles, concerning the shipment of $2,000,000 worth of horses to be used by the French in the war. The French government has had a corps of twenty men traveling all of the southwestern part of the United States rounding up all the available horses for cavalry, light and heavy artillery. The $2,000,000 order has not been filled yet, but it is expected purchased in southern California (that at least 10,000 more will be and 5,000 in lower California.

JONATHAN JENNINGS—3

After serving the state for six years as governor, Jonathan Jennings, was again elected as representative to congress. For eight consecutive years thereafter he represented the second congressional district. In 1830 he was defeated by General John Carr. "The defeat of Jennings at the election was not because the people had lost confidence in his judgment or ability to serve them, but because they believed such a result would conduce to his good. He was of convivial habits, and at Washington had become a regular drinker. His friends saw the habit was growing on him, and were fearful that if they continued him in public office he would become a drunkard. Therefore, many of them voted against him, believing such a course was best for him. The habit—the single vice of his life followed him to his grave."—Woolen.

Republican Candidate For Clerk

Subject to Primary Election March 7th

GEO. B. MOORE, Jr.

Having been the Republican nominee for Clerk in 1912, which required considerable time and some expense, both cheerfully given; the privilege of again making the race, when, from a Republican viewpoint, the political outlook is very much brighter, would be appreciated very much.

To The Republicans of Rush Co.

I wish to say to the Republicans of Rush county that I am a candidate for the nomination of STATE SENATOR for the district of Hancock, Rush and Decatur Counties. I was your nominee for the same office in 1914, when the district was composed of Hancock, Rush and Fayette; and ran ahead of the State ticket in each County.

I did not seek the office at that time, but accepted when there seemed to be no chance of election, and did my part to bring success to the party. I led the ticket in Hancock County by several hundred votes. I am asking for your support in the nomination, and if nominated will do all I can to be elected. I take this method of soliciting your support as I will be unable to see all personally.

Thanking you for anything you may do in my behalf, I am,

Yours most sincerely,

ORA MYERS

sign. The commission has been two years without allowing the city a thirty-five cent increase and several big deals have been put across without proper investigation, it is said. In the Lafayette deal the commission did not ascertain the value of the property involved by a physical valuation and apparently took the company's word for it. The administration here has obtained an idea that the commission is opposed to municipally-owned plants and favors private corporations.

To what extent the commission is looked upon in an unfavorable light is shown in Wayne county. There the candidates for the legislature are being asked whether they will try to put a stop to what seems to be disastrous policies which the public service commission is pursuing in its interpretations and administrations of the state regulatory law.

In the meantime Rushville expects little from the commission and indications are that the city will get just about what it expects.

ABLE TO RETURN TO DAILY WORK

G. W. Schisler, of Muncie Has Not Lost an Hour's Time Since Taking Tanlac.

Muncie, Ind., Feb. 18.—"One bottle of Tanlac has done me more good than all the other medicines I have taken in the last four months," G. W. Schisler, who lives on Rural Route No. 12, near Muncie, said recently.

"I have suffered with kidney trouble for several months. For the last four months it has been particularly severe, and I have had to lose considerable time from my work as a result. I suffered most during the night and early in the morning. My back was so stiff that I could hardly straighten up. My kidneys were irregular. I didn't sleep well and had to get up often. My stomach also was in bad condition. I was subject to spells of dizziness.

"Since I began taking Tanlac I have resumed my work and haven't lost an hour's time. The kidney trouble has been greatly relieved and the stomach trouble benefited. The pains in my back are not so severe, and my kidneys are more regular than they have been for a long time. I am sleeping better and my appetite has improved. In fact, I am better in every way."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, that has proved such a boon to thousands of Indiana people, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, rheumatism, insomnia, defective circulation and the like.

It is now sold exclusively in Rushville at F. E. WOLCOTT drug store.

were foot rests. "Forty or fifty year ago," he continued, "one-half the church members were under forty years of age. Now one-half of them are under twenty. Not many years ago people would argue that a young person of fifteen or sixteen years of age could not understand the things of the soul and could not decide. But now it is conceded the youth of ten years may make up his or her mind about salvation.

"If the church does her full duty, she must lay as much emphasis on the training of young people as on adults. The church has a great work to do. It is time that the church as an institution is study life. She must study the mental, physical, spiritual and social side of life. She must understand the chief physical characteristic of a child is activity. Seven out of every ten churches put their Sunday school children on stiff benches or little red chairs. Time and again the question of the restlessness of boys and girls has arisen in these conferences. They are not restless. It is activity misdirected by you.

"It is the duty of the church to study the unfolding life and capitalize the fact that boys and girls between the ages of nine and twelve memorize things rapidly. If we take advantage of that, we have some Bible students. And it does not pay to argue with the young person of sixteen to eighteen who gets skeptical. Reason with them in the right course.

"What does the church do on the social side? Stands off and throws stones at the things the young people are enjoying nowadays. Young people play cards and dance because they are working along the least resistance. It is the business of the church to recognize the social needs of the young people and provide a program for them."

Carl Van Winkle of Butler college spoke on "Advantages of a College Education." He cited statistics to show that it does pay from a commercial point view, aside from any other. He recalled that the average laborer makes $450 a year, in forty years will earn $18,000 and that the average high school graduate earns $1,000 a year and in forty years, the average life, would earn $40,000. This shows he is paid $10 a day for every one spent in schools. He declared a common school education increased a man's earning capacity fifty per cent, a high school education one hundred per cent, and a college education from two to three hundred per cent.

RICHMOND GAS CASE IS HEARD

Company is Asking The Right to Charge Seventy Cents a Thousand Cubic Feet

CITY ENTERS OBJECTIONS

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Feb. 18.—Whether the Richmond Light, Heat, and Power company is entitled to and in need of "temporary relief" or whether the citizens of Richmond are entitled to gas at forty cents a 1,000 cubic feet was the issue before the public service commission today.

The company recently filed a petition asking "temporary relief" and alleged that despite large consumption of gas, it has been unable to pay operating expenses, depreciation and interest on the outstanding securities. Two years of operation under the present 40-cent rate had shown deficits, the company averred. The company asks a 70-cent rate. On the other hand the city objects to any increase, stating it would be unwarranted.

The commission recently issued an order allowing the city to buy the plant. The company has until February 21 to appeal. An appeal may depend on the action of the commission on the "temporary relief" petition.

A banquet followed this, when sixteen of the members dined at the Scanlan House. The coverings for the table were in a dainty design of black and white, the sorority colors and strips crossed on the tables, in the center of which were fragrant hyacinths. A three course dinner was served, honoring the initiates.

A very pleasant evening was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Billings near Gings, by a group of their intimate friends, when they entertained informally Wednesday evening. PATRIOTIC PARTY.

Nothing had been omitted yesterday afternoon to gather an interesting group of ladies together and to entertain them royally, when the members of the D. A. R. gave a sewing party in the form of an open meeting at the beautiful home of Mrs. C. A. Manzy in North Harrison street. With patriotic decorations a beautiful atmosphere had been created in which the guests, which numbered perhaps seventy-five, were entertained. Over each of the mantles, in the doorways, and over the bannister of the stairs the graceful folds of the American flags were draped and lent a patriotic appearance. A number of beautiful potted ferns were here and there and from each of them, a number of tiny flags were projecting. An air of fragrance was given by the wall pockets filled with cherry blossoms, peeping from nooks and corners. In the four spacious adjoining rooms, the guests were seated where they enjoyed the interesting program over their needlework. Mrs. Will Dill presided graciously over the meeting and announced the numbers on the program, the first of which was a beautiful solo by Mrs. Will Amos, who sang "Our Emblem," one of the D. A. R. songs. In her paper on "Mt. Vernon," Mrs. D. D. Van-Osdol led the guests in a tour of inspection through the old home of George Washington and its environments, bringing out interesting sidelights on the life of Washington through his home life. The paper showed excellent preparation. Mrs. Wilford Grindle's paper on "Early Colonial Industries" was equally instructive, dwelling on the great help of women in the industries of the time and our debt to these women for modern home making. Mrs. Carl Beher closed the program with two beautiful solos, "Indiana" and "Rose in the Bud."

The guests were then invited into the dining room, set in typical colonial style. Wall pockets containing spring flowers made fragrant the room, in which flags were also used.

In the center of the dining table a beautiful cut glass candelabra contained a number of burning red candles. Mrs. D. D. VanOsdol and Mrs. Sarah Giffin poured coffee from the beautiful colonial silver coffee service. Cherry pie, a la-mode, apropos of the day, and mints were also served. The affair in all was a well planned, well executed and greatly enjoyed one. Among the guests were Mrs. Ruby Strong of Indianapolis, Mrs. Jackson, of Anderson, and Miss Clara Haydon of Lexington, Ky.

The Rebekah degree staff will meet tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY.

Anticipating the coming birthday of George Washington, decorations suggestive of that holiday were used yesterday when Mrs. Robert L. Tompkins entertained the members of the Grand Club and their husbands at dinner. The three tables of players spent the pleasant afternoon over the card tables in several engrossing rounds of Bridge. At six o'clock, when the gentlemen arrived, the twenty-four guests were ushered into the dining room, which was radiantly beautiful, thanks to the tiny hatches, cherries and other emblems suggestive of the day. In the center of the long table, where all the guests were seated, red roses formed a graceful centerpiece. At some places were tiny busts of the father of our country, at others were perky little cherry trees, a cute little fan sprung from the handles of the hatchets that were also souvenirs, and placed here and there upon the table, too, were a number of these clever little emblems. An elegant turkey dinner faultlessly served was then enjoyed as the jovial party made merry over the festive board. The evening hours were enlivened by a few games of Bridge. The out-of-town guests was Mrs. Carpenter, of St. Louis, who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Will M. Sparks.

GOOD PROGRAM.

The Home Economics Club, which meets with Mrs. Roy Mayse at her home at 218 West Fourth street on Saturday afternoon at two o'clock, has an interesting program in store. Mrs. C. H. THE AMERICAN TOBACCO COMPANY

THEY SUFFER BY COMPARISON

Statistics on South American Trade Under Two Tariff Laws Are Very Illuminating.

EXPORTS ON THE DECREASE

Likewise, Imports For First Ten Months of 1913 Were $106,000,000 Less Than in 1915.

Washington, Feb. 18.—Although exports to South America during the ten months ended October 1915 were $36,000,000 greater than for the first ten months of 1914, both under the Democratic tariff law, yet they were $8,000,000 less than for the first ten months of 1913, nine months of which was under the Republican tariff law, despite the fact that European markets were largely cut off, thus causing the South American republics to look to the United States to supply deficiencies.

On the other hand, imports from South America for the first ten months of 1915 were $66,000,000 greater than for the first ten months of 1914, both periods under Democratic tariff, and $106,000,000 greater for the first ten months of 1915 than for the first ten months of 1913, under a Republican tariff.

The balance of trade against us for the first ten months of 1913, Republican law, was $30,000,000. For the first ten months of 1914 it was $113,500,000, and for the first ten months of 1915 it rose to $143,000,000.

Secretary Redfield and his understudy, Dr. Pratt, of the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, have been entertaining the public for the past few months with accounts of the wonderful trade increases with South America, and by comparing the 1915 with the 1914 periods, both under Democratic law, they are able, because the war has shifted trade currents, to make a fair showing, by ignoring the trade of 1913. As it is not to the interest of the present Administration the trade record of this country during the last year the Republican tariff law was in operation, 1913 is invariably omitted.

Imports from South America for the first ten months of 1913, were valued at $154,000,000; in 1914, Democratic tariff law, to $194,000,000; in 1915, Democratic law, $260,000,000. Exports for the same periods were in 1913, $124,000,000; in 1914, $80,000,000; in 1915, $116,000,000.

People with kidney ills want to be cured. When one suffers the tortures of an aching back, relief is eagerly sought for. There are many remedies today that relieve, but do not cure. Doan's Kidney Pills have brought lasting results to thousands. Here is Rushville evidence of their merit.

Mrs. Will Wolf, 1021 N. Oliver St., Rushville says: "I was having quite a bit of trouble with my kidneys. My back was weak and ached all the time. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and I had backaches and dizzy spells. As others of my family had used Doan's Kidney Pills with good success, I got some at Lytle Drug Store. After finishing a few boxes, I was cured and I haven't had any trouble since."

ENGLAND WILL NEVER GIVE UP

Will Continue Fighting Until Germany Agrees to Terms of Peace Proposed by Allies

NO ESTIMATE AS TO LENGTH

Varies From Six Years to Six Weeks—British National Spirit is Changing

By ED. L. KEEN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)
New York, Feb. 18.—"How long do you think the war will last?"

After the usual polite and more or less perfunctory inquiries as to the state of his health and what sort of a trip he had, judging from the writer's personal experience and observations in the last few hours, this is the first serious question fired at every American returning from Europe by everyone he meets.

Anticipating some such inquiry, and in order to guide him in forming an opinion, the writer had asked the same question of a lot of folk in England just before sailing on the Baltic for New York. It received almost as great a variety of replies as the number of Britishers interrogated—that is, as to time.

They ranged all the way from six weeks to six years.

But in their real essence all were alike. "Until Germany gives up!" was the unanimous verdict.

They're telling a good story now in London about the way premier Asquith is said to have answered this question at a recent social gathering. British cabinet members have become so used to parrying uncomfortable or puzzling queries on the floor of the House of Commons since the war began that they often, unconsciously carry their parliamentary argument into the drawing-room.

"How long do you think the war will last, Mr. Asquith?" inquired a fellow guest.

"I would have much preferred that the honorable gentleman had given me previous notice of this question," replied the Prime Minister in his most unctuous on-the-carpet tone, "but since he insists upon an immediate and explicit reply, I will say that the answer is in the negative."

Although the head of the British administration can't be persuaded to hazard a time guess on the duration of the war, both his public and his private utterances on the subject in recent weeks leave no doubt that he stands with every other Britisher whose opinion is at all worth considering, in the manifestly sincere and honest belief that the war will go on until Germany agrees to peace on the terms of the Allies.

Make no mistake about it, the Allies are out to win. They were never so determined or so united as they are today. That the recent "made in Germany" stories of likelihood of an early separate peace with Russia, or France, or England, are absolutely without foundation I am firmly convinced. Even in the event of the remote possibility that one or more of the allies might be persuaded to enter into separate peace negotiations with the Central Powers, England would go right on fighting.

It would be most difficult for anyone who has lived in the British atmosphere since before the war started and has watched the gradual alteration of the English national spirit from airy cocksureness through successive stages of bewilderment, humiliation, and lesson-learning, into one of relentless bull-dog tenacity of purpose, to arrive at any other conclusion.

Despite all the muddling of the past eighteen months—the military miscalculations, the diplomatic blunders, the political upheavals the industrial turmoils—the average Britisher has not only never despaired, he has never had any real doubt as to the outcome of the struggle. The more recent misfortunes—the loss of Bulgaria, the obliteration of Serbia and Montenegro, the failures in Gallipoli, and the troubles in Mesopotamia he has regarded as mere episodes, unpleasant it is true, but without any effect except possibly to retard triumph of the allies.

Tells Farmer How To Market His Farm Produce

The farmer who wishes to sell his products by parcel post, and the housewife who wishes to use this method of securing country produce for her table, will find many useful points in Farmers' Bulletin 703, "Suggestions for Parcel Post Marketing." This bulletin, in addition to explaining the postal rates and measurement limits for parcel post matter, discusses in some detail the types of containers which are most successful and the methods of grading and packing produce, so that it will reach the consumer in good condition, and be attractive in quality and appearance. In treating standards for parcel post shipments, the bulletin tells how to select, handle and pack poultry, and how to grade and pack the various fruits and vegetables which the average farmer is likely to market through the post office.

The bulletin points out that one of the common obstacles to establishing parcel post communication between farmer and consumer is that the farmer may be unwilling to offer goods at a price which attracts the consumer, or that the consumer may offer a price lower than the farmer can obtain at a local market. To quote the bulletin: "Not only must the farmer have something additional to the usual price to compensate him for the extra work, container, and postage required, but the consumer must also have something to attract him into marketing by parcel post."

In determining what the price shall be, both the farm price and the retail price paid by the consumer when he markets in the ordinary way should be taken into consideration. The consumer must receive either a better article at the usual retail price or an article of the grade usually purchased at some concession in price.

"It is probable that the point which make the strongest appeal to the average consumer is that he can secure by parcel post a fresher, brighter, more attractive, and thus possibly a better product than he can obtain otherwise."

"The average producer, as a rule, does not realize the importance of appearance as a factor in selling goods, and frequently is careless and indifferent in preparing produce for market. The consumer, on the other hand, relies very largely upon appearance in selecting food supplies, and unattractive articles are passed by promptly."

"A personal acquaintance should be established between producer and consumer, when they come into business contact. This will help a great deal in furthering parcel post marketing, and also will eliminate many of the mis-understandings which may occur from time to time. A definite understanding should exist as to the duties of each in regard to remittances, claims for damaged or spoiled produce, and the preservation and return of containers."

"Ah! what relief. No more tired feet; no more burning feet; no more swollen, aching, tender, sweaty feet. No more soreness in corns, callouses, bunions. No matter what ails your feet or what under the sun you've tried without getting relief, just use "Tiz." "Tiz" is the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up the feet. "Tiz" cures your foot trouble so you'll never limp or draw up your face in pain. Your shoes won't seem tight and your feet will never, never hurt or get sore and swollen. Think of it, no more foot misery, no more agony from corns, callouses or bunions. Get a 25-cent box at any drug store or department store and get instant relief. Wear smaller shoes. IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Backache is a sign you have been eating too much meat, which forms uric acid.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Swift's Fertilizers Continue to Make Winners

If you used Swift's Fertilizer and obtained the best yield in the state you would, of course, give our fertilizer the credit that was due it. NOW, if the following year's Champion used Swift's and this performance repeated from year to year, you naturally would begin to think that Swift's Red Steer Brand is a pretty good fertilizer, would you not?

Look at the Record and Decide Yourself.

There can be no better proof of the value of a fertilizer than the records made by those who use it. There must be merit in a fertilizer that produces the results stated below:

Mr. Will Essig, Tipton, Indiana—131 bushels corn per acre. The largest yield of which there is any record in Indiana. Mr. Essig was recently awarded a gold medal at the Panama Exposition. Used SWIFT'S.

Mr. Norris McHenry, Elizabethtown, Ind.—112 bushels per acre. Winner of the Indiana 1914 Men's Five Acre Corn Contest. Used SWIFT'S. In 1915 he was induced to use other than Swift's Fertilizer and got no prize.

Mr. F. R. McHenry, Norris' father—used no fertilizer in 1914 and won no prize, but as his son won the State Championship in 1914 with the aid of Swift's Fertilizer, Mr. McHenry used Swift's in 1915, got 87.3 bushels of ripe corn per acre and won the sweepstakes for men in the Bartholomew County Five Acre Corn Contest.

The 1st, 2d, 3d and 4th prizes for the highest yields of good quality corn in the 1915 Five Acre Corn Contest for men in Bartholomew County, Indiana, all went to users of Swift's Fertilizer. Also in the Boys' One Acre Corn Contest in the same county, the 1st, 2d, 3d and 4th prizes went to users of Swift's Fertilizer.

The Ohio 1914 Champion Corn Grower, Arnett Rose, Alger, Ohio—153.9 bushels—used SWIFT'S.

The Ohio 1915 Champion Corn Grower, Dewey Haines, Arcanum, Ohio—154 bushels—used SWIFT'S.

The Indiana 1914 Boy Champion Corn Grower, Roy Friedersdorf, Elizabethtown, Ind.—128.8 bu.—used SWIFT'S.

Gordon Reap, Elizabethtown, Indiana, who was third last year, is County Champion with 105.73 bushels. He also used SWIFT'S this year.

There certainly MUST be something in Swift's Fertilizers that PRODUCES RESULTS. Swift's blood, bone and tankage fertilizers make prize winners.

If YOU do not use Swift's Fertilizers, you are not sure that you are using the best fertilizer obtainable. You want the best—then buy SWIFT'S—the Red Steer Brand.

Candidate For Joint Senator

The campaign of Ora Myers for the Republican nomination for joint senator from Decatur, Rush and Hancock counties is commencing itself to the Republican voters of Rush county. Myers' vote-getting ability is best illustrated by the fact that he was elected mayor of Greentfield, where the Democratic majority had always been close to two hundred and where they had elected none but a Democratic mayor in twenty-five years. Rush, Hancock and Fayette counties elected a senator until the Democratic gerrymander was put through in 1915. Decatur was taken from Bartholomew and placed in this district. Two years ago Bartholomew and Decatur elected a senator, who will hold over for the next session of the legislature. In case Mr. Myers' opponent from Greentfield should be nominated, it would give Bartholomew and Decatur counties both senators. Mr. Myers was the Republican candidate for joint senator two years ago and ran ahead of the state ticket in every county. That is one of the reasons he deserves the nomination again.

CROWDED DOCKET MAY PREVENT TRIAL

Gary Justice of Peace Will Not Likely Get a Hearing During The Present Term

HE FACES NINE CHARGES

(By United Press.)
Crownpoint, Feb. 18.—Because the Lake county circuit court's docket is crowded it was believed here today that Edward Gross, Gary justice of the peace, would not be tried for some time on charges growing out of his various clashes with the Gary police in his saloon and courtroom.

Gross has been out on $7,500 bail since his arrest several months ago. There are many who believe he will never be tried.

Gross faces nine charges—two for felonies and seven for misdemeanors. He is charged with assault with intent to kill, felonies, assault, resisting an officer, etc., etc.

The trouble between the squire and the Gary police is of long standing. The police allege they sought to arrest Gross when he was about to throw a whiskey bottle at a litigant in his court and that the squire, who refuses to recognize the power of the police to arrest him, then threatened the police.

DUG HIS GRAVE; NOW HAS LOVER

Veteran, 89 Years Old Prepared to Die, But His Sweetheart Has Changed Everything

TOMB STONE EVEN ERECTED

(By United Press.)
Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 18.—Out in Forest Home cemetery there is an open grave waiting for Francis Marion Collins, an inmate of the Soldiers' home in this city. Five years ago, after Collins had been denied permission by the cemetery authorities to dig his own grave, he went to the city of the dead one dark, rainy night and by the light of a lantern prepared his own grave. Collins is 89 years old. He had a tomb stone, inscribed as he directed, with everything but the date of his death, erected.

But though Collins is nearly four score and ten years old and ready to die, he doesn't want to give up the ghost just yet. After making preparations for the last act of the long drama of his life, he turned eagerly to life and love. In fact he has a sweetheart now. Her first name is Annette. He won't tell the rest. She is keeping the veteran interested in life by writing him interesting love letters and visiting him at the home several times a year. Collins served four years during the war in the famous Company I, One Hundred and Thirty-fourth Pennsylvania infantry, Army of the Potomac.

BRAZIL WANTS TARIFF WALL

Believe Importations of American Products Are Hurting Home Industries in That Country

DUTY ON SOME 20 PER CENT

Especially Demand a Higher Rate on Flour—Fight on With American Millers

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Rio de Janeiro, Feb. 1 (By Mail).—Because they believe American flour and other American products imported by Brazil are crippling home industries here, Brazilian business interests have asked the Brazilian federal senate to build up the tariff law and keep United States manufacturers from running away with the Brazilian domestic market.

Certain American goods now pay 20% less import duty into Brazil than is paid on the same class of goods imported into Brazil from other countries. This favor is shown to these American goods because United States abandoned the idea of charging a 3 cent duty on coffee imported into the United States from Brazil.

The Brazilian flour millers and the Commercial Association of Brazil now say this agreement is working great benefit to the United States and great harm to Brazil. They say coffee prices are so high that Brazil can choose its market; and that therefore Brazil will be able to dispose of its coffee in the U. S. whether it is taxed or not; and that therefore it is useless to continue the agreement and let the U. S. manufacturers gobble up all the domestic trade of Brazil in other lines. In proof of their contention the millers cite figures to show that since the agreement was made importations of American flour have jumped from 54,000,000 pounds in 1906 to 152,000,000 in 1914.

The appeal before the federal senate is only for a higher flour tariff, but the tariff upward on condensed milk, rubber articles, clocks and watches, paints, typewriters, refrigerators, pianos scales, electric fans, cement, building material and furniture and other articles.

American interests in Brazil and Brazilian business men are watching the millers' fight closely. Practically all the Brazilian flour mills are working on British capital, but they are influential in the commercial organizations of the country. American flour has enjoyed a 30% lower tariff in Brazil than any other imported flour and is even said to be far under the price of the domestic product.

MANY TROUBLES DUE TO WEAK KIDNEYS

"It is no use advertising a medicine unless the medicine itself is good enough to back up the claim you make for it," said Johnson's Drug Store, the popular druggists, to a Daily Republican man. "On the other hand it is a pleasure to sell a medicine when our customers come in afterward and tell you how much good it has done them. And that is why we like to sell and recommend Solvax, the great kidney remedy. We have so much faith in this article that we are going to guarantee it in the future and will return the money to any purchaser of Solvax whom it does not help."

This shows great faith in Solvax. It really is a most unusual medicine because it overcomes the worst cases of kidney complaint by removing the cause. It goes straight to the seat of the trouble. It soaks right in and cleans out the kidneys and makes them pass off all the uric acid and poisonous waste matter that lodges in the joints and muscles, causing rheumatic pains; soothes and heals the bladder and quickly end all such troubles.

DRINK HOT TEA FOR A BAD COLD

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus driving a cold from the system.

Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.
